We, Silkar Madencilik Sanayi ve Ticaret Anonim Şirketi ("Silkar Madencilik" or "The Company"), use cookies ("cookie") in order to make the most efficient use of the <https://www.silkarstone.com/> website and to enhance your visitor experience. In the capacity of data controller, we hereby aim to inform you in detail about the cookies we use on our site in order to fulfill our privacy notice obligation under the Personal Data Protection Law No. 6698 ("Law" or "PDPL") and the relevant legislation.

For the cookies we use on our website other than mandatory cookies, explicit user consent is obtained and the right to change their consent at any time is provided. By using the cookie management panel, users can see types of cookies used on our website and can set their preferences by toggling the "on" or "off" options for all cookies other than Mandatory Cookies. Similarly, users can always change their preferences through this panel.

What is a Cookie?

Cookies are pieces of text sent to your browser by the website you visit on your computer or mobile device. Data related to your visit; for instance, cookies that help remember the language you prefer or the pages you visit are also used to provide you with a special experience, to improve the services offered on the website, and enhance your experience.

The visitor's browser (Google Chrome, Internet Explorer, etc.) only saves the cookies obtained during the current session on the hard disk in such a way that it takes up the minimum amount of memory space and does not jeopardize the visitor's computer. Therefore, cookies are intended to provide a more useful and personalized experience for a website.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, cookies cannot collect any information stored on your computer or files.

Cookies Used by Silkar Madencilik

WHICH COOKIES ARE USED ON OUR SITE?

Mandatory/Technical Cookies: Mandatory/technical cookies are used to enable the visitor to navigate and use special parts of the site, such as access to secure areas of a page. These cookies are aimed at the proper functioning of the site. For example, it is possible with the use of these cookies to enable the transition between pages in the menu of the website.

 Analytical/Performance Cookies: These collect information such as the language preferred by the visitor on the website, the frequency and mode of use of the site, and information on how visitors access the website. The purpose of Analytical/Performance cookies is to make the website more useful and to identify the general tendency of visitors. However, these cookies do not contain data that can identify visitors. For example, these cookies may collect information on the average number of minutes visitors spend on certain pages of the website other than the homepage.

Targeting/Advertisement Cookies: Targeting/Advertising cookies are cookies that are downloaded by a third party during a usage visit to an application/website. They allow measurement of the efficiency of the advertisements displayed to visitors and a calculation of the number of displays.

Purposes of and Legal Grounds for Processing Personal Data

Mandatory cookies are used to perform an information society service you have requested (log-in, filling out forms and remembering privacy preferences, counting visitors and measuring traffic on our website). Your personal data collected through these cookies are processed pursuant to clause (c) of paragraph 2 of Article 5 of the PDPL which stipulates, "It is necessary to process personal data belonging to the parties of a contract" or clause (f) thereof which stipulates, "Data processing is mandatory for the legitimate interests of the data controller, provided that it does not harm the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject."

Analytical/Performance Cookies These cookies are frequently used to improve our website and are also used to estimate the number of singular visitors, to detect the most important search engine keywords that lead to a web page, or to monitor the browsing
